

FIRST EDITION

The Arizona Daily Star

Tucson, Wednesday, October 7, 1992

Page Two — Section B

Walker's lawyer, in closing argument, says she tried to resist bribe

PHOENIX (AP) — Former state Sen. Carolyn Walker tried to resist an undercover agent's offer of money and sex during her trial in 1989, she says. The money was to get her to testify against her husband, who was charged with bribery.

Walker is charged with taking nearly $20,000 from undercover agent Joseph Shuler during four visits in 1989. She says the money was to get her to testify against her husband, who was charged with bribery.

Walker, 39, is charged with taking nearly $20,000 from undercover agent Joseph Shuler during four visits in 1989. She says the money was to get her to testify against her husband, who was charged with bribery.

Walker is charged with taking nearly $20,000 from undercover agent Joseph Shuler during four visits in 1989. She says the money was to get her to testify against her husband, who was charged with bribery.

Walker is charged with taking nearly $20,000 from undercover agent Joseph Shuler during four visits in 1989. She says the money was to get her to testify against her husband, who was charged with bribery.

Office scrutinized for handling of Palo Verde whistleblowers

PHOENIX (AP) — Two Palo Verde nuclear generating station employees say they expect to be interviewed as part of a House Energy Committee investigation into the role of the Palo Verde nuclear generating station in the investigation of the Three Mile Island nuclear power plant.

The NRC last week proposed fining the plant's operators $130,000 for allegedly retaliating against Linda Mitchell and Sarah Thomas after they voiced safety concerns.

The NRC last week proposed fining the plant's operators $130,000 for allegedly retaliating against Linda Mitchell and Sarah Thomas after they voiced safety concerns.

The NRC last week proposed fining the plant's operators $130,000 for allegedly retaliating against Linda Mitchell and Sarah Thomas after they voiced safety concerns.

The NRC last week proposed fining the plant's operators $130,000 for allegedly retaliating against Linda Mitchell and Sarah Thomas after they voiced safety concerns.

Infant apparently drowns in bathtub

A 3-month-old son of a married couple apparently drowned in a bathtub Monday after being left alone for several minutes, officials said.

The child was found in the bathtub Monday morning. The mother was not at home at the time.

The child was found in the bathtub Monday morning. The mother was not at home at the time.

The child was found in the bathtub Monday morning. The mother was not at home at the time.

The child was found in the bathtub Monday morning. The mother was not at home at the time.

PUBLIC RECORDS

DEATHS
The following deaths were reported to the Tucson Office of the Registrar:
JAMES E. BROWN, 68, of Tucson, died Oct. 5 at his home. Cause of death: heart disease.
JAMES E. BROWN, 68, of Tucson, died Oct. 5 at his home. Cause of death: heart disease.
JAMES E. BROWN, 68, of Tucson, died Oct. 5 at his home. Cause of death: heart disease.

Universities offer regents tight 1992-93 budgets

By Daniel R. Hamilton
The Arizona State Board of Regents has received the first set of budget requests from the state's universities for the 1992-93 fiscal year.

The regents must make a final recommendation for the three universities by Oct. 15.

GRAND OPENING
EVERYTHING'S $1.00
SUPERSTORE

Can you believe it? Furniture and books all for $1.00?
Honey, look! Hardware and housewares for just $1.00.
Gee, Mom! Eyeglasses, Sunglasses and toys are just one dollar.

OPENING OCTOBER 9
MARIPOSA MALL
254 West Mariposa
(Between Kmart and J.C. Penney's)
281-4772

NOW OPEN AT
Tucson Mall
4500 Oracle Road
887-3352

Merchandise not available at all stores.