

INTERNATIONAL APPLICATION OF U.S. WHISTLEBLOWER REWARD LAWS

Stephen M. Kohn

Chairman of the Board of Directors
National Whistleblower Center

“Going after waste, fraud, and abuse without whistleblowers is about as useful as harvesting acres of corn with a pair of rusty old scissors”

— Senator Charles Grassley, Chairman of Senate Judiciary Committee, speech given on National Whistleblower Day (July 30, 2018) --- Watch the Video --- Read the Speech

The Problem Facing Fraud Detection

"Honest behavior is not rewarded . . . Given [the] costs [of whistleblowing] the surprising part is not that most employees do not talk, it is that some talk at all."

— Alexander Dyck, et al., "Who Blows the Whistle on Corporate Fraud?" The University of Chicago Booth School of Business Working Paper No. 08-22 (2009).

The Solution

Qui Tam - "The Lincoln Law"

On March 2, 1863, President Abraham Lincoln signed the original whistleblower qui tam reward law, the False Claims Act ("FCA"), targeting fraud in government contracting.

It was modernized in 1986.

The FCA incentivizes reporting and is the model for all current whistleblower reward laws.

The Framework for qui tam and Reward Laws

Initial disclosures are filed with the agency responsible for enforcing the whistleblower law. FCA claims are initially filed under “seal” in federal court

Emphasis is on the quality of the information, not on a whistleblower’s employment discrimination case.

---

Whistleblowers who provide original information that leads to a successful enforcement action are entitled to a mandatory reward under the modern reward laws of between 10-30% of the collected proceeds triggered by their disclosures.

---

Mandatory rewards available under the False Claims Act, Dodd-Frank Act, Tax and Money Laundering, Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, Securities and Exchange Act and Commodity Exchange Act.

THE LAWS

Internal Revenue Act | 26 U.S.C. § 7623

The False Claims Act whistleblower law is “the most powerful tool the American people have to protect the government from fraud.”

— Former Assistant Attorney General Stuart Delery - Remarks at American Bar Association’s 10th National Institute on the Civil False Claims Act and Qui Tam Enforcement (2014)

“The taxpayers owe a debt of gratitude to those who often put much on the line to expose such [fraudulent] schemes.”

— Assistant Attorney General Jody Hunt – Remarks on the False Claims Act, DOJ Press Release (2018)

A Whistleblower Program Delivers Significant Benefits

- In FY 2017, the U.S government recovered over $3.7 billion through its civil fraud program.
- Whistleblowers were directly responsible for reporting of over $3.4 billion of these recoveries.
- Whistleblowers were the source of the detection of 91.8% of all civil fraud recovered in FY 2017.

Source: U.S. Department of Justice

In 2017, of the $3.4 billion recovered through the FCA and as a result of whistleblower assistance, $392 million (11.5%) was awarded to whistleblowers.

Source: U.S. Department of Justice

- Since its modernization on October 27, 1986, the False Claims Act has increased the overall annual recoveries from fraudsters who cheated the government.
- The total fraud recovered in the United States increased from $88.4 million in FY 1987 to $3.7 billion in FY 2017 based on whistleblower disclosures under the FCA.
- Since FY 1987, whistleblowers were responsible for 72% of the funds recovered in contracting or procurement fraud cases.

Securities and Commodity Exchange Act

Whistleblowers can file anonymous and confidential claims.

Eligibility does not depend on U.S. citizenship

---

Whistleblowers who provide original information that leads to a successful enforcement action entitled to a mandatory reward of between 10-30% of the collected proceeds.

---

Since 2011 the SEC has paid over $300 million in rewards.

BEST PRACTICES

Confidential and anonymous reporting

Independent and empowered Whistleblower Office with authority to investigate allegations, and
reward/protect employees

Strong civil, criminal and administrative sanctions
punishing fraud, bribery
and corruption.

Prohibition against retaliation. Financial Incentives to promote reporting of major frauds

Confidential and Anonymous Submissions

False Claims Act

Complaint filed under “seal” and only served on the government, not the defendant. This permits the government to investigate the case without the company knowing who the whistleblower is, or what information the whistleblower has disclosed.

Dodd-Frank Act/Foreign Corrupt Practices Act

Permits anonymous filings, in which the government does not know who the whistleblower is. Requires government investigators to ensure that information that could identify the whistleblower is not shared with the defendant/company under investigation.

Financial Incentives

Reward employees based on quality of information and success of prosecutions

Employees are incentivized to report frauds when there is strong evidence.

Compensation is based on the quality of information, not on how much suffering an employee experiences as a result of retaliation.

All rewards are paid as a percentage of the successful enforcement action triggered by the whistleblower.

Proactive Protection

A reward based whistleblower program permits an employee to take proactive steps to avoid retaliation. It is the only program that realistically permits confidential reporting and careful pre-screening of whistleblower disclosures.

Because a reward can only be paid if there is a successful enforcement action, whistleblowers are incentivized to report strong cases of major frauds.

Effective Anti-Fraud Laws

Criminal Penalties

Large criminal penalties applicable to private corporations and individuals

Powerful Civil Penalties

Large civil fines and penalties are a key to all anti-fraud laws. Criminal cases are hard to prove and the defendants enjoy significant rights. Most of these protections do not apply to civil prosecutions.

Foreign Corrupt Practices Act

The FCPA permits the Securities and Exchange Commission to obtain large fines in civil cases, including disgorgement of all profits..

False Claims Act

The FCA provides for treble damages and permits a $20,000.00 sanction for each false claim filed, in addition to all other penalties
